Creative Writing Prompts

Using all of the words from the vocabulary list on the white board, choose 3 prompts below and answer each one. Each entry should be at least one page. Be careful to use the vocabulary terms in the appropriate part of speech. Get creative!

1. Have you ever made a New Year's Resolution that you kept?
2. Tell us about a teacher who had a real impact on your life, either for the better or the worse. How is your life different today because of him or her?
3. You're locked in a room with your greatest fear. Describe what's in the room.
4. Quote me: Do you have a favorite quote that you return to again and again? What is it, and why does it move you?
5. Describe your relationship with your phone. Is it your lifeline, a buzzing nuisance, or something in between?
6. Reincarnation: do you believe in it?
7. You're given a plot of land and have the financial resources to do what you please. What's the plan?
8. When was the first time that you felt like a grow-up (if ever)?
9. The Tooth Fairy (or Easter Bunny, or Santa Claus . . .) : a fun and harmless fiction, or a pointless justification for lying to children?
10. You have the choice to erase one incident from your past, as though it never happened. What would you erase and why?
