FASD PRINT MEDIA POLICY Q&A

1. The FHS Press staff writes an article that upsets Dr. Fuller. Mr. Fitzpatrick, FHS Press adviser, isn't crazy about the article either, but does not stand in the way of its publication. Can Dr. Fuller fire Mr. Fitzpatrick as FHS Press adviser for this?

2. A school board member is upset because a student publishes an article in the FHS-Press, which calls into question a decision made by the school board. Can the school board vote to cut funding from the FHS Press?

3. Mr. Matthews, the parent of an FHS freshman, is not happy that his son's photo was used on FHS-Press.com and claimed the newspaper staff did not receive his parental permission to use his son's photo. Is the FHS Press staff required to get parental permission in order to publish photos online?

4. An FHS Press reporter writes an article, advocating for a "Senior Skip Day" at the end of the month. Mr. Deal orders the newspaper to remove the article before it can be published. Can Mr. Deal do this?

5. True or False: Mr. Deal or another school administrator chooses to review the contents of the FHS Press and approve its content prior to publication.
