

- Madame (Adeline) (^{new} princess) conferred w/ Sister Marie de l'Incarnation re: Blanche
- Rose Ducor (famous French singer) Dubbed Sister Marie de l'Incarnation "Sister Marie of the Christchild"
- Rose Ducor sheltered many religious personnel since her fame & popularity protected her from chastisement & ridicule

Ch. 3 - Sister Marie de l'Incarnation was staying with Rose Ducor & maintained a biography of the martyred sisters at Compeigne

- S.M. 1. wore lay clothing, not a veil, & had an alleged red scar on her neck since the execution of the sisters at Compeigne
- S.M. 1. was the daughter of a French prince; $;
- S.M. 1. ^{doesn't} defends Blanche & her decision to stay in the Carmel
- The Reverend Mother is begged by SMI for Blanche not to be invested into the Carmel b/c of her fear
- SMI is a maternal figure to all the nuns, especially Blanche
- SMI thought of herself as an inadequate prioress for the convent
- SMI wants to be chosen in Blanche's place b/c the Monsignor wishes it for her (Blanche)