

- Madame Lidvine is not a fan of this initially since she is more tempered & reserved in her work / willingness to obey the French authorities

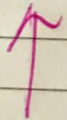

- Madame Lidvine rejects the suggestion b/c it would openly defy the newly instated law

- Madame Lidvine prays the Famous hymn of St. Theresa of Avila w/ Denis & Blanche when she delivers them the bad news

- She acts like the Princess that she needs to be; resolute, encouraging, maternal, positive

- Blanche doesn't understand how Madame Lidvine says to obey the law, unless it defies their piety to God; Blanche doesn't understand it

- "Indeed it must be admitted that just at this time her behavior began to be profoundly disturbing" (un le Fort 54)

Blanche is going to start acting out very peculiarly...
